Maupay Nga Adlaw!

2009 marks the 22nd year of celebrating the Carigara Town Fiesta in the US East Coast. Your fellow Kalgaran-ons here in the Lone Star State of Texas are proud to host this year's celebration, our very first, and God willing the start of more to come. Let this be a time for renewing the bond that over the years have helped us anchor to the Catholic faith that has nurtured our families over the years.

Please take note of the venue, it is in San Antonio, not in Dallas, as previously published. We apologize for any inconvenience that this may have caused however you will soon see why this is a good place to host our first Carigara Fiesta. We hope that you can come over not just for this celebration but also to see and experience what this great place has to offer. In your travel plans, please include an additional day if possible on July 12 to attend the Parumpag at Comal River.

Contribution of $50 per family of 4. $10 for any additional family member.

Fees Collected at the door on July 11

Pls RSVP by: March 31, 2009 to CarigaraFiesta@gmail.com or by calling any of the organizing committee contacts listed on this page.
